Do You Need An Attorney in Trademark Registration?

Set up your brands for success! The United States is the most difficult country in the world to register a trademark. The trademark process in the United States takes approximately one year and is fraught with pitfalls. Approximately 70% of all applications receive a refusal. Many of these refusals can be overcome by strategic work of a licensed trademark attorney, but DIY-applications generally are NOT successful.

We are a law firm - every application via Trademark Elite is filed by licensed trademark lawyers. Unbeatable Attorney Service in both Professionalism and Price.

* U.S. Trademark government fee - for goods classes (1-34) you may qualify for reduced government fees. Not all applications qualify; To be eligible for reduced fees, the identification of goods needs to match an Identification preapproved by the USPTO. The Trademark government fee will be charged when we submit your mark(s) to the Government Trademark Office, which is usually in the next few business days.
